INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING "PETITION FOR PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDER (NONDOMESTIC)"

Please print neatly. Press firmly because you are printing on five copies.

By filling in this form, you are asking for a personal protection order that tells the respondent not to do certain things you don't want him or her to do. If you are in immediate danger, you should ask the judge for an "ex parte" order, which will be issued without waiting for a hearing.

Items A through H must be completed before your petition can be filed with the court. Please read the instructions for each item. Then fill in the correct information for that item on the form.

A Write your name, address, and telephone number in the "Petitioner" box. If you are under 18 years of age, write in your age. Write the name, address, and telephone number of the person you want restrained in the "Respondent" box; if he or she is under 18 years of age, write in his/her age. If you want your address and telephone number to be kept from the respondent, do not write your address here. Put in the address of a relative or friend or a post office box where the court can contact you.

B Check the box if the respondent is required to carry a firearm while at work. If you aren't sure, check the box "unknown."

C Check whether there is a pending action between you and the respondent. If there is, fill in the case number, the name of the court, the county, and the state or province where the action was filed, and the name of the judge.

Check whether there are any court orders or judgments between you and the respondent. If there are, fill in the case number, the name of the court, the county, and the state or province where the order or judgment was entered, and the name of the judge that signed the order.

D Explain in as much detail as possible why you are asking for a personal protection order. Describe what has happened or what has been threatened so the judge has enough facts to decide if a personal protection order should be signed. If you want to prohibit stalking, you must detail two or more separate instances of harassment (unconsented contact) that caused you to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested. Include dates and places. Write on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form. If you only want to prohibit the posting of a message through the use of any medium of communication, including the Internet or a computer or any electronic medium, you must detail what caused you to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested.

E Check only those boxes you need because you must be able to convince the judge you need all the protection you are requesting. Check box a only if you provided details in item 4 that support an order against stalking.

F An "ex parte order" means you do not have to let the party know in advance that you are asking the court for an order and you do not have to wait for a court hearing to get the order. Check the box for an "ex parte order" if you believe the other party might hurt you or threaten you if he or she found out you were getting an ex parte personal protection order.

If you do not check the box for an ex parte order, you must have a court hearing. Fill out form CC 381.

G If you are under 18 years old, you may need an adult (called a "next friend") to petition for you. Check this box if you have a next friend helping you file this form, and have the next friend sign the petition.

H Write in today's date and sign the form. Hand the form to the county clerk. The clerk will fill in the rest of the information and will give you your copies.

You must read the booklet "Instructions for Personal Protection Orders" for directions on the legal process.

NOTICE REGARDING PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDERS

Personal Protection Orders are designed solely to prevent domestic violence and/or stalking. To get a PPO you must be one of the protected persons; meaning a spouse, former spouse or individual with whom he/she has had a child in common, resides with or has resided in the same household, has or had a dating relationship or is a person being "stalked". The law requires a least two harassing acts, not just one isolated incident. The PPO law covers only certain types of harassment, not all offensive kinds of behavior.

HANDWRITTEN STATEMENT

In your request for a personal protection order, you must write in blue or black ink a statement explaining why you need the order to protect you from the respondent. (Form 375. Paragraph 4 or Form 377. Paragraph 2). You will probably need more space than is included on the form. You can attach extra sheets provided to you by the clerk or Family Court Coordinator, called "Affidavit". Do not write on the back and make sure you sign and date the bottom of each additional page.

You must include all important information in your statement if you want the Judge to grant the PPO ex-parte (immediately). But be as brief and descriptive as you can. Your statement might include the following:

1. A description of the most recent assault and/or treatment. Include when and where it happened, what the respondent did and/or said, any injuries you suffered, if weapons were involved, whether your children or others were present or harmed as a result of the respondent's behavior, if property was damaged, if the police were called, etc.
2. Include the length of the relationship, how long have you known this person, how long the assaults/threats been happening, how frequently they occur, past convictions or arrests, or other violent behavior or threats by the respondent.
3. A description of any other behavior the respondent engages in that threatens you. Such as following you, constant phone calls, interfering with you at work, school or other places, refusing to leave or stay away from your home, etc.
4. Whether drugs or alcohol use contributes or is related to the respondent's behavior.
5. Other steps you have taken for protection, such as going to a shelter, filing charges, calling the police, home security.
6. Anything else that the judge might need to know to determine that the respondent is a threat to your immediate physical safety.

ATTACHMENTS

If you have copies of police reports, medical records, custody orders, Judgment of Divorce or anything else that will assist the judge in making a decision, you should attach those to your statement. If you have a custody order and are asking the court to prohibit the respondent from removing the children from your custody, you must attach a copy of the custody order.
